

Tasha Tudor: A Celebration

Tasha Tudor was an award-winning children's author and illustrator. To commemorate the 80th anniversary of the publication of her first book, Pumpkin Moonshine, the Shenandoah County Library System will host programs throughout the month of October. All events are free, and no registration is required.

Strasburg Community Library

Friday, October 19 at 10:30 am

A Pumpkin Moonshine Story Time will be followed by a pumpkin craft activity. One lucky preschooler will receive a board book copy of Pumpkin Moonshine. In addition, a number of framed prints of Tudor's work will be on display.

New Market Area Library

Saturday, October 20 at 3:00 pm

In her talk entitled "Tasha Tudor: A New England Legend," Laura Ellen Wade will discuss the life and work of Tasha Tudor and her daughter Bethany, also an author and illustrator. On display will be original illustrations from their works.

County Library

The month of October

On display will be various works by Tasha Tudor, as well as art prints and other ephemera.
